

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The fundamental freedoms of the citizens of South Dakota, and their fellow Americans are embodied in the concept of "Private Property Rights--Protect Them"; and,

WHEREAS, In the entire American free enterprise system, this concept is perhaps nowhere more personally meaningful than in the right of every citizen to own real property, this cherished legacy, bequeathed to us by virtue of our forefathers' foresight and wisdom, carries a concomitant obligation to preserve the land upon which our lives depend; and,

WHEREAS, It is only by sustaining the land and perpetuating our Constitutional rights to it that each of us can continue to enjoy its bounty and ensure the same privileges for the generations that will succeed us; and,

WHEREAS, The fulfillment of this obligation is consistently demonstrated by the commitment and concern of the South Dakota Association of Realtors in assisting South Dakota residents who wish to exercise their rights to own real property; and,

WHEREAS, Realtors nationwide have, since 1956, participated in an annual observance to celebrate the right of Americans to own real property and enjoy the benefits it bestows. This observance, called Private Property Week, is a special time set aside each year to remind Americans that we not only have the right to own real property, but an individual responsibility to guard this prerogative from any infringement, personal or political; and,

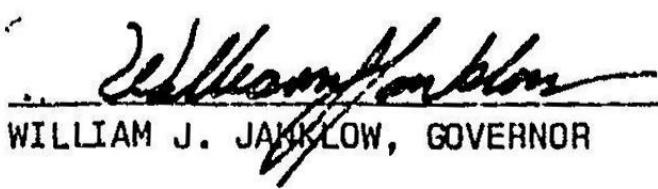

WHEREAS, It is the conscientious and persistent vigilance of every citizen of the State of South Dakota that will enable us to maintain these satisfactions we derive from the political rights we possess:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 13 to 19, 1980, as in South Dakota, and I encourage my fellow South Dakotans to join with the South Dakota Association of Realtors and the 700,000 members of the National Association of Realtors throughout America during this meaningful observance and take an active part in appropriate and significant programs of state and civic betterment during this week and throughout the year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
